

The first time
you looked in the mirror, you did so with
wonder,
FASCINATION,
and love.

Then,
the world told you
that you were too much of this and not enough of that.

And since you were new here, you thought they knew
more than you did,
so it must be true.

But guess what?

It wasn't.

And it isn't.

Find the wonder,
FASCINATION,
and love
within those eyes
that look back at you
each day.

Because both
flaws and beauty
are only a matter
of perception.
